C., 2 varieties; George II, 1741 roses, 1758 plain; George III, 1787 & 1816; George IV, 1825 shield, 1829 lion; William IV, 1836; Victoria, 1838, 1865, 1887, 1889, 1899, the 5 types complete; Edward VII, 1902 and George V, 1911.

This collection was formed in England many years ago and is remarkable for its choice condition. The Philip and Mary and the Cromwell shillings are in exceptional condition. Most of the milled issues are beautifully toned uncirculated coins. The original cost, which is indicated by the tickets accompanying each coin, is around fifteen pounds but it is doubtful if the collection could be formed at that low cost today. Offered as one lot. 38 pcs.
